

Spider Crossword

Across

1. A ball made of silk that protects spider eggs
2. Body colouring that makes a spider hard to see
8. The organ through which silk is produced
9. Most spiders have this number of eyes
11. The name for spider jaws
12. Hunters have large ____ to find prey
13. A type of microscopic arachnid
15. Found on spiders' body and detects vibrations
16. A type of spider web often seen in the garden
17. Burrowers' fangs stab in this direction
22. A huntsman is an example of a _____
26. Injected by fangs to paralyse prey
27. A main body part of a spider
28. Spiders are ___ vertebrates
29. Spiders make this to catch their prey
31. Spiders can't fly because they never have these
33. A weaver with excellent eyesight
35. A spider that spins a sticky blob on a silk thread
36. The central body part of an insect

Down

1. A skeleton on the outside of a body
3. Found on the tip of a spider's chelicera
4. Spiders can produce this material their whole life
5. Some arachnids have only ___ main body part
6. A spider is an _____, as is a scorpion or a mite
7. Specialised _____ make silk in the abdomen
10. An appendage located between the jaws and the front legs
14. An _____ is an animal without a backbone
18. The ___back is a venomous species of weaver
19. A Funnelweb is an example of a _____
20. Invertebrates with three body parts and wings
21. The St. Andrew's Cross Spider is a hunter, weaver or burrower?
23. A bite from this spider can kill a human
24. Some spider silk is stronger than this material
25. A spider named after a type of wild dog
30. A blood-sucking arachnid
32. Crustaceans have this many legs
33. Insects are ___ arachnids
34. Insects have ___ legs